

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1879,

The cultivation of sorghum for sugar making, though a recent thing has become of enough importance in the Mississippi valley to justify the first annual convention of the growers at St. Louis. They are only less enthusiastic than Agriculture Commissioner Le Due that they have at last found out to save the $100,000,000 paid for imported sweets, and point with pride the 4,131 acres already in cane in Minnesota. It was recommended that small farmers follow the Louisiana practice of establishing central mills to which to bring cane to be ground and turned into syrup and sugar.

The Maryland and Delaware ship-canal project is to be put forward in Congress this winter. It involves the cutting of a canal from the Delaware to Chesapeake bay, the United States Government to guarantee the interest on $4,000,000 of the bonds of the company, the bonds to mature in 1828, bearing interest at five per cent per annum. Another $4,000,000 will be raised by private subscription. The experience of the Texas-Pacific railroad people with Congress during the last few years, in the matter of a Government guarantee of interest on corporation bonds, is not encouraging for the Baltimore project.

SENATOR CAMERON, of Wisconsin, says the Springfield Republican announces himself a firm believer in an old-fashioned Scotch Presbyterian hell since he personally encountered Louisiana witnesses in their native jungles in New Orleans, where he went with Ben Hill, of Georgia, and Zeb Vance, of North Carolina, to investigate Kellogg's contested seat in the United States Senate.

This is the effect of good orthodox company. We have heard it said "that even Heaven itself would be a perdition to an old sinner." There is no more affinity between good and evil than there is between water and oil.

The New York World's obelisk promises to cause a good deal of international trouble yet. The feeling in Alexandria and the neighborhood on this subject runs very high, and fears are entertained lest the popular indignation against the Americans, who are accused of stealing this monument of Egyptian antiquity and grandeur, should break out in mob violence. An Alexandrian paper came out the other day with an inflammatory address on this subject, and got together a mob of several hundred persons to attack the Americans engaged in moving the obelisk, but the crowd was soon dispersed by the police and the newspaper promptly suspended by the Khedive.

The Administration's support of Cornell in New York was due, says a Washington correspondent, to a reconciliation of ex-Gov. Fenton brought about between the President and Conkling, whereby Sherman and Evarts were to take the New York stamp for Cornell, in return for which Conkling was to cease his war on the President and throw New York's vote in the National Convention for Sherman and Fauntleroy.

And this seems to be a very feasible story, judging from the vasculations and imbecility of the weak and canting occupant of the White House. Verily, his guardian, or dictator, by whom the whole matter has undoubtedly been manipulated, is certainly a very shrewd and sagacious trickster. But his pupil lacks the moral courage and stability to make an accomplished wire-puller.

The Springfield Republican, in referring to the President's financial dilemma, very pertinently remarks that if Mr. Hayes is not prepared to back up a good recommendation when he makes it and say he means it, he should at least hold his tongue about it. If he can't possibly "get his mad up," he should keep his dangerous impotency to himself. To tell Mr. Fort that he "should not feel aggrieved" if the Republicans paid no attention to his recommendation, is feeble. He should feign a spirit, if he hath it not. His meekness in this matter has much relieved the Republican Senatorial caucus, whose committee on the subject will now recommend that the subject be dropped. Senator Morrell dissent, and he is the only member of the Finance Committee who has the courage to stand with Chairman Bayard on this subject.

INCREASE OF EMIGRATION.

The protracted period of depression throughout Europe has had the tendency of increasing the immigration of laborers and artisans to the United States. During the month of November 14,000 immigrants were landed at Castle Garden, showing an increase of 8,855 over the corresponding month of last year. A large majority of them are English factory operatives, who, owing to the great decline in the trade of English manufactured goods, resolved to try their fortunes in this country. The decline is attributable solely to the attempt to compete with American goods, which led to the manufacture of cheaper articles, and induced our English cousins to make up for the difference in profit by adulterating their goods, till the character of their Lancashire and Burnley fabrics was ruined. It is probable that the cotton trade in England has seen its best days, and that it will never again reach the magnitude which it had attained in 1873.

The same may be said also with regard to agricultural labor, which commands greater wages in this country than in England. Our vast prairies are open for the labor of all men accustomed to the plough. Our country is large, and wherever the laborer or the artisan can go he is sure to be well paid for good work. So long as a European agricultural laborer has the means of emigrating to the United States he will not think of staying in the old country, to receive only a couple of dollars a week, when he can hope to be a farmer in this country than acquire a political standing, and become eligible to the highest offices in the State.

A New Weather Theory.
Rev. Henry Roe of England sends us the London Times' new theory of the weather. He claims to have determined by careful observations, covering nearly thirty years, that dry and wet periods succeed one another in alternate cycles of nearly equal length. Now in this epoch of revolution, each, or the wave of one period is exactly the same size of that of a corresponding period in an earlier or a later time; but there is enough of regularity and uniformity about the waves to make it fairly safe to assume that the number of years in each period is divisible by any eye that looks for it. These periods extend over three whole years for each, and the following simple rules will enable any one to work out the several cycles of years himself: First, the year in which the sun is given is even and exactly divisible by three, that year is the middle one of three cold and wet summers. 2. When the number representing the year is odd and divisible by three, then that year is the middle one of three dry and wet summers. After testing by these rules, the successive seasons of the past twenty-seven years, and finding the fact to conform to the theory, Mr. Roe predicts that 1881 will be the middle one in a triad of hot and dry summers, and that the next two odd and wet periods have (if any) to do with the recognized cycles of sun spots that have been made out; nor does any examination of recent seasons confirm the alleged harmony of theory with fact.

Mr. Jay Gould's Personal Habits.
See his Report.

Mr. Gould's millions now crowd close to those of Vanderbilt. He is a man of finer texture than the old Commodore's son. He doesn't run to fine houses, costly stables and blooded steeds. At night, when he dismisses his servants from his office offices in his room in Fifth Avenue, and turns up in a little book the telegraphic reports of the receipts of the various railroads which he owns, he goes not to a club to carouse, to a banquet to steam up with champagne, or to a hotel to have a electric shock through Wall street as soon as the bulls and bears come into that field for pasture. Mr. Gould is a liberal man, although when he makes a bequest he does not have the information written in manuscript and sent to the newspapers. The next morning early he has the telegraph going lightning fast, and he remains in his office until the last moment of the day.

LUNG DISEASE.

SEALIN, ALA., May 12, 1879.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

Dear Sir.—I have a case of Rheumatism and as blood cleaner and purifier I can cheerfully recommend it.

Yours truly,

MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony that her patient woman had been called upon to undergo. She had suffered from rheumatism and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayerful and earnest words of Mrs. Sutt, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the modern discoverer.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

The Future.

The following poem is by Minelle gate Smedley, the English poetess, who has recently come into notice, and for whom a brilliant future is predicted by the English critics:

A figure wanders through my dream
And sits upon my face.
She turns from my breast it seems,
And yet returns from my embrace.
And sometimes passing from my sight,
It lifts the veil as it departs,
And eyes flash out with such a light
As never dawned on waking hearts.

There is no need of sound or speech,
Or living through the troubled time,
The rapture of that smile can teach
More than a century of tears.
And this I know, if it could move out of my dream into my days,
One sorrow, unknown to me,
Should fill and drown my life with praise.

Love with no doubts and no demands,
But generous as a Southern June—
Vast brotherhood of hearts and hands,
Choir of a world in perfect tune—
No sunset fills the gild,
But sunsets which we dare not climb—
But ceaseless charms of hope fulfilled,
Making a miracle of time!

How sure how calm the picture seems!
How near it comes, behold, possessed!
It is not only in my dreams,
I feel that touch upon my breast.
It thrills me through the barren day,
It holds me in the heart of strife;
No phantom-gasp that meets away,
It seems—it is—the touch of life!

We look into the heart of flowers
And wonder whence their bloom can rise;
The secret hope of human hours
Is hidden deeper than our eyes,
In helpless tracts of wind and rain.
The bark goes on without a sound;
And while you weep you weep "In vain."
The flower is growing underground.

Bitter and wormy are the years,
Life's fruitless misery.

Shakes all our wisdom into tears,
Thro'ged by the clamorous griefs that say,

"Behold what is, forget what seems,
I can but answer, 'Whealday':
That is that figure in my dreams."

Persons of Taste.

The most refined nations have an appreciation of sweet odors, and find pleasure in the use of articles agreeable to the sense of smell. Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes are pronounced by the best judges to be superior in rich, fresh flowery fragrance to any coming tonic abroad.

No More Hard Times.

If all men would be as much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quiet, do-nothing physicians. In this the vibrationing medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. Cuticura
BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies die a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood purifier and Liver Remedy, is the most sovereign, cleansing and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty diseases. It is now in general use, proving that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It has been used in Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Cancer, and Cancer, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruption. It has been used in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofula, Cancer, Ulcers, Tumors, Skin Disease, Porosis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scalid Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the skin and scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.
BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs. ELLIS & POTTER, Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adverting my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMOVING MEDICINE. I have had the pleasure of further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid myself of the same disease, which I had been plagued with for two years past, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense, even though it cost me a great deal, and continues longer to follow their cure and help me to the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for two years past, and till now had been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have seen many Drs. or Dr. H. H. Tyler, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my cure. The other parts of my body were affected in proportion, and have now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured, and shall continue to use the same, and shall rectify, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the skin, and ease and pleasure, as I have done in many cases, and will use the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,

JOSEPH CROWELL,
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 29, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE
CURED IN ONE WEEK.

Messrs. ELLIS & POTTER.—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bed sore, which was the result of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has not since given up to date.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mr. A. M. McPheeters has returned from Atlanta.

Regular meeting of Hiram Lodge Monday night at 7 o'clock.

Rev. F. L. Reid will occupy the pulpit at Person Street church to day at 11 A. M.

The publishers of Touree's "Fool's Errand" are to issue another 20,000 edition of that work.

It is understood that a "Wake County Farmer's Club" will be organized in this city at an early date.

Mr. Wayne Alcott has just returned from a successful business trip to Randolph county.

The store of Yeargan, Petty & Co., is a model of a good taste and is in every way an attractive place to make purchases.

A good many compliments for the participants in the Concert at Peace Institute Friday night were current on the streets yesterday.

Prof. Fairchild, the florist, is succeeded with his Nash Square nurseries. He will erect another hot house exclusively for cut plants and flowers to-morrow evening.

The First Presbyterian church—Sabbath school meets 9:30 o'clock. Services in the church at 11 A. M. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Watkins.

We learn that Governor Jarvis and a party of friends leave on next Tuesday to be present at the opening of the big tunnel, beyond the "mad cut" and to pass through on the first train that goes.

Colonel Askew will remove his business office in this city to the factory at Neuse on the first of January next. Correspondence should be addressed to that point on and after that date.

The Tuckers are out in an attractive holiday advertisement. Read their announcement under the head of new advertisements in this morning's paper.

Services at the Second Presbyterian church will be conducted by Rev. J. C. Atkinson, the pastor, at 11 A. M. to-day at the Chapel of the D. & D. Asylum.

The display of Xmas presents at Alfred Williams & Co.'s book store presents a most attractive appearance and affords one an excellent opportunity of making a selection for a half day gift.

The spring term of the Select Boarding and Day School at Hillsboro, under the management of the Misses Nash and Mrs. K. K. will begin on the 1st of next February. This is one of the most excellent schools for young ladies in the South.

Messrs. Stronach & Belo have taken out auctioneers license and given a large bond for the faithful discharge of their duty as auctioneers. They are energetic and progressive business men and are well suited for upon our dealing.

The old reliable hardware house of T. H. Briggs & Son appear among our new advertisements this morning, in which they have a word to say to sportsmen. It is not necessary to recommend this house, they have a wide reputation for business integrity and standing words.

The probabilities are that the Old Folk's Concert given at Peace Institute last Friday night will be repeated with a number of changes in the programme, on Tuesday night next. Should this be the case a large and very select audience may be expected.

We are requested by Mr. W. H. Pace, chairman of the Board of Missions, to state that persons attending the Baptist meeting in this city on the 18th instant, will apply for return tickets as he has made arrangements for several of the seats for reduced fare.

Services in Christ Church today at 11 A. M. and 4 P. M. Parents, spouses, and guardians are reminded to send the children of the parish to the afternoon service (at 4 P. M.) specially for public catechising as by ritual and canonical requirement. Sunday school every Wednesday at 4 P. M. in the Chapel every Wednesday at 4 P. M. Every Friday and on all Holy days at 10 A. M. Ushers in attendance at the doors of the church to conduct strangers to seats, and the public to all services—as always—cordially invited and heartily welcomed.

Penitentiary Board.
This Board has been in session for the past two days, engaged in the regular monthly business of examining accounts, &c., &c.

Unsolvable.
The following unsolvable letters are held in the post office for the reasons assigned: Miss Ida M. Harrell, to the care Mr. Oran Smith, Johnston county, Letter—(no office or State.)

Mrs. C. W. Scarboro, Wake Forest College, N. C. Letter—(no stamp.)

A Nice Christmas Present.
If you want to make a most acceptable Christmas present to your husband, father, or pastor, you can do so by sending one of the "Johnson Revolving Book Cases." This will be a daily pleasure to the recipient for a life time. Sold by Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh.

Y. M. C. A.
What has become of the Young Men's Christian Association? The cold and inclement weather is on us and yet we hear of no collections from our citizens to provide provisions and food for our suffering men. Those young men who have done such noble work in relieving the suffering of the poor are about to abandon the good work?

The Canada "Hum."
The word "hum" supplies the space in Canada that is so occupied by the word "boom" in this country. In an unlikely manner, the Canadian Parliament, who believe in the "protective" spoke of the "hum" of industry that was arising all over the Dominion." Since then they have had the agricultural "hum," the iron "hum," the laborers' "hum" the manufacturers' "hum" the merchants' "hum," and in fact everything that had the power to "hum" was said to "hum."

by the protectionists, while the free traders with equal vehemence denied that they could help the public welfare of "hum," "Hum" the "hum" over there now; even charity begins to "hum" in the Dominion.

Work Begins.

Under the energetic management of Mr. A. H. Temple, the work of tearing down the "old Masonic Hall" on the corner of Dawson and McDowell streets has commenced, and soon it will be known for the past sixty years, will be among the things that have been, and in its place a handsome church for the worship of the Primitive Baptist. This old Hall has a history and a romance that we hope some of our older citizens will give us.

Rev. T. W. Smith.

The Franklin Times thus speaks of the new pastor of the Person Street, E. Church: "This purely Christian minister, who has been in charge of the Methodist Church at this place for the past two years, has been appointed to the pastorate of Person Street Methodist Church at Raleigh. During his stay in this community he has made for himself a very large number of friends, who will regret to part with him. We congratulate the good people of Person Street Church upon having secured the services of this good and excellent gentleman."

We also congratulate the Methodists and the community generally of Louisville on the appointment to the pastorate of the person of a good man.

Rev. F. L. Reid will occupy the pulpit at Person Street church to day at 11 A. M.

The publishers of Touree's "Fool's Errand" are to issue another 20,000 edition of that work.

A Card.
All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary to South America. Send me a detailed address envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Anman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Call Meyer's for a schooner of Winter's New York beer for five cents.

Cypress Shingles
cheaper than ever before offered in Raleigh for sale by Jones, Green & Powell.

Provides For Them All.
The papers are full of accidents, by rail, river and sea; on the street, or the farm, in the mill, shop, store, office; at home and abroad. An accident policy in the Travelers provides for them all. W. P. Wetherell, agent.

Mr. J. L. Stone's average sales of New Home Sewing Machines are over one hundred per month; he has sold over fifty (50) in the last week. Office and show-rooms, No. 18, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

Cout.
500 tons just received and more behind to come when that is sold, of the purest sort, and not too much oil in it, will last well and give good heat, and will not burn up in a minute. Price as low as any. Give me a trial. John Osborn, Agent.

Cheek Suits.

In great variety, and of the latest and most fashionable styles, arriving daily at L. ROSENTHAL & CO., Raleigh, N. C.

Cout.
Just arrived to-day a cargo of coal at Dr. W. Whitaker's yard. His coal has not been exposed to the summer's heat and rain, therefore has more oil in it and less dust, than any on this market.

Large Sale.

J. L. Stone, general agent for the New Home Sewing Machine Company, sold 229 of these machines last month, being the largest purchase ever made in North Carolina by any one agent. He also sells other machines.

What Is Hay Fever?

This disease is supposed to be an affection of the mucous membrane of the nose. They say that Henry's Carbolic salve will cure it if used freely and persistently. Give it a trial. Beware of counterfeits.

Christmas Goods!

Several large cases of new goods just arrived, consisting of suits, overcoats, etc., for men and boys. These goods were ordered especially for Christmas and the holidays and will be sold at prices that will certainly save you money.

R. B. ANDREWS & CO., Clothiers and Hatters.

Elding's Silk and Williamson's silk, J. L. STONE, Agent.

Delightful Bouquets.

Dr. Price's Meadow Flowers, Evening Violets, Sweet Peas, and Camomile, and his handkerchiefs, bunches, and light bouquets. They are certainly the most exquisite scents that can be imagined—the odor of dainty buds and rich blossoms.

Rand & Barber Bros.

Cotton Buyers, Wholesale Grocers,

Cotton Oil Company, Commission Merchants, Flour Merchants,

Wilmington street, Raleigh, N. C.

Second Fall Stock.

Of clothing in all the latest and most popular styles arriving daily at L. ROSENTHAL, Clothiers, Fayetteville street.

For Rent.

A new two room dwelling house on Swain street. Contains an excellent kitchen, garden and a splendid well of water. Apply to this office.

Practical Economy.

Before Patapsco Baking Powders was patented and placed on the market, consumers had to pay 50 cents per pound for the Old Rut Powders. You can now buy Patapsco for about one-half that amount. This account for the popularity of Patapsco.

Usters and Usterettes.

And reversible overcoats. The noblest winter overcoat in the city, at ROSENTHAL'S.

How many a home has been robbed of sunshine and happiness and rendered desolate by the loss of some dear and petted child. This is a dangerous season for children, and parents should keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup handy. Price 25 cents.

Political Issues.

Kearney's advice to all parties is to "pool their issues." We think a good deal as he does, that we should bury the dead issues of the past. As a starting point for all issues, some would be there is nothing equal to Henry's Carbolic Salve. Beware of counterfeits.

Neuralgia.

This is not a KING CURE-ALL. But is only good for Neuralgia headache. For these troubles it is the only specific known. Sold by all the leading druggists.

General.

For the cure of all diseases.

For the cure of all diseases.
